LYDIA M. LAW ELECTED AS PRESIDENT OF THE CAPITAL DISTRICT BLACK AND HISPANIC BAR ASSOCIATION

ALBANY, NY—McNamee, Lochner, Titus & Williams, P.C., one of the Capital Region's oldest and largest law firms, announced that Lydia M. Law, an associate with the firm, was elected president of the Capital District Black and Hispanic Bar Association at the Annual Meeting on April 9, 2009. The term will run through 2011.

One of the Association's objectives is to promote an increase in racial and ethnic diversity at all levels of the legal profession in the Capital District for the benefit of Black, Hispanic, and other attorneys of color and the entire legal profession. Ms. Law's practice includes the areas of matrimonial and family law. She joined the firm in 2008. Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Law was in private practice and also worked at two agencies with the State of New York. Ms. Law received her undergraduate degree from the University of Albany and her law degree from Georgetown University Law Center.

Founded in 1863, the McNamee Law Firm currently employs 33 attorneys and is located at 677 Broadway in Albany and 646 Plank Road in Clifton Park.
