JOHN J. PRIVITERA NAMED SUPER LAWYER

ALBANY, NY— McNamee, Lochner, Titus & Williams, P.C., one of the Capital Region's oldest and largest law firms, announced that John J. Privitera, Chairman of the firm's Environmental Department, has been named a Super Lawyer in the 2008 Upstate New York Edition of Super Lawyer magazine. Privitera is listed under the categories environmental litigation, environmental, land use/zoning.

Privitera, who joined the McNamee Law Firm in 1991, has been a principal since 1993. A frequent author and public speaker on environmental law, land use and regulatory matters, his practice includes environmental law, land use law, and litigation. From 1986 to 1991, Mr. Privitera served as Assistant Attorney General in the Environmental Protection Bureau of the New York State Department of Law.

He is a founding board member of the Mohawk Hudson Land Conservancy and a member of the New York State Bar Association Environmental Law Section. Privitera is a past chair of the New York State Bar Association Real Property Law Section and has served on the Association's House of Delegates since 2001.

Super Lawyer magazine conducts annual surveys to obtain candidates. New York is one of three states where attorneys are surveyed annually by region, rather than statewide. The candidate pool includes those who have been in practice for a minimum of five years. According to Super Lawyer magazine, “We ask the lawyers to nominate the best attorneys they’ve personally observed in action.”

Founded in 1863, the McNamee Law Firm currently employs 33 attorneys and has offices at 677 Broadway in Albany and 646 Plank Road in Clifton Park. For additional information about John J. Privitera or McNamee, Lochner, Titus & Williams, visit www.mltw.com or call 518-447-3200.
