BRUCE J. WAGNER NAMED SUPER LAWYER

ALBANY, NY— McNamee, Lochner, Titus & Williams, P.C., one of the Capital Region's oldest and largest law firms, announced that Bruce J. Wagner has been named a Super Lawyer in the 2008 Upstate New York Edition of Super Lawyer magazine. Wagner is listed under the categories family law, appellate, and collaborative law. For the second successive year, Mr. Wagner placed among the top 50 in highest point totals for the Upstate New York Edition and was also, for the second time, the only matrimonial lawyer in the Capital Region listed among the top 50.

Wagner, who chairs the firm's Matrimonial and Family Law Department, joined the McNamee Law Firm in 1987 and has been a principal since 1994. He practices exclusively in the field of matrimonial and family law, and represents clients in the negotiation and litigation of pre-nuptial agreements, separation and divorce. His areas of concentration include divorce, high net worth property cases; prenuptial agreements; interstate support; and international custody.

Wagner also has a successful statewide appellate practice before the Appellate Divisions and the New York Court of Appeals. He is a Town Justice in the Town of Schodack, Rensselaer County, and has been Acting City Court Judge, Third Judicial District. Since 2005, he also has served as a Faculty Member for Continuing Judicial Education for Town and Village Justices.

A frequent lecturer on a wide variety of matrimonial and family law topics for various bar association and legal groups, his professional memberships include the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, the International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, the New York State Bar Association, and the Rensselaer County Magistrates Association.

Super Lawyer magazine conducts annual surveys to obtain candidates. New York is one of three states where attorneys are surveyed annually by region, rather than statewide. The candidate pool includes those who have been in practice for a minimum of five years. According to Super Lawyer magazine, "We ask the lawyers to nominate the best attorneys they've personally observed in action." Only five percent of the total lawyers in the state are selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers.

Founded in 1863, the McNamee Law Firm currently employs 33 attorneys and has offices at 677 Broadway in Albany and 646 Plank Road in Clifton Park. For additional information about Bruce Wagner or McNamee, Lochner, Titus & Williams, visit www.mltw.com or call 518-447-3200.
