HARRY P. MEISLAHN ELECTED A VP
FOR THE NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

ALBANY, NY—McNamee, Lochner, Titus & Williams, P.C., one of the Capital Region's oldest and largest law firms, announced that Harry P. Meislahn, Of Counsel to the firm, was elected vice president for the seven-county Third Judicial District of the New York State Bar Association at the Annual Meeting in New York City on January 30th. The term will run from June 1, 2009, to May 31, 2010.

As a result of this position, Meislahn also will be on the 25-member Executive Committee for the Association which has 75,000 members.

The McNamee Law Firm has had two other Third District Vice Presidents in its 145-year history: David S. Williams and Thomas P. Connolly.

Meislahn's practice includes the areas of financial services and trust and estate administration. He joined the firm in 1966. From 1980 through 1988, Meislahn was the General Counsel for the firm's client, Norstar Bancorp. From 1988 through 1993, he was the Assistant General Counsel of Fleet Financial Group, successor to Norstar. In 1993, Mr. Meislahn rejoined the Firm and served as its managing principal from 1994 to 2001. Four years later he became “Of Counsel” to the Firm.

Founded in 1863, the McNamee Law Firm currently employs 32 attorneys and is located at 677 Broadway in Albany and 646 Plank Road in Clifton Park. For additional information about Harry Meislahn or McNamee, Lochner, Titus & Williams, visit www.mltw.com or call 518-447-3200.
